RESPONSIBILITY OF THE	§
SUPREME COURT OF TENNESSEE,	§
Respondent.	§

PETITIONER'S MOTION TO DISQUALIFY DISCIPLINARY COUNSEL FOR BEING AN ANTI-MUSLIM BIGOT

I. Introduction

Comes now the Petitioner, through undersigned counsel, and pursuant to Tenn. R. Civ. P. 7.02(1), is regrettably compelled to move this Court to disqualify Disciplinary Counsel in this action and order the Respondent to appoint Special Disciplinary Counsel in Disciplinary Counsel's place. As grounds, Mr. Manookian submits that Disciplinary Counsel Jerry Morgan maintains extreme animus against Muslims, see Collective Exhibit A—a minority group that includes the Petitioner's family. In light of Mr. Morgan's participation in this action and his avowed anti-Muslim bigotry, neither the Petitioner, nor this Court, nor the public can have confidence in the integrity of this proceeding. Accordingly, this Court should disqualify Disciplinary Counsel and order the Board to appoint Special Disciplinary Counsel in Mr. Morgan's place.

II. Facts

The Petitioner is married to a Muslim woman who is also a well-known lawyer in this jurisdiction herself. The Petitioner has two children with his wife, who are being raised in a Muslim household. Regrettably, these facts carry considerable significance in this case, because Disciplinary Counsel Jerry Morgan is a proud anti-Muslim bigot.

Without purporting to catalogue the full scope of Mr. Morgan's enormously disturbing and flagrantly racist public pronouncements, Mr. Morgan unmistakably harbors extreme prejudice against Muslims and Islam generally. See generally Collective Exhibit A. For instance, he has declared that "stopping Muslims" is "the #1 issue of our time"—a statement that he maintains on his public Twitter account to this day:

Disciplinary Counsel has also declared that "talking big against Muslims" is "good" on the same platform—a statement that he similarly maintains to this day:

In myriad other public statements that Disciplinary Counsel additionally maintains to this day, Mr. Morgan has also, among other things:

- (1) Insisted—repeatedly—that unlike Christians, Muslims do not condemn murder;³
- (2) Suggested that there is no time in history when Muslims have ever been at peace with others;⁴
- (3) Expressed concern that “Muslims had [the] ear” of America’s last President;⁵
- (4) Contended that the Constitution “does NOT REQUIRE us to let in more Muslims!”⁶;
- (5) Declared that “siding with Obama in a fight involving Muslims means you’re on the wrong side”;⁷
- (6) Warned that “Muslims will take everything we give them and us [sic] it against us. Time to wake up!”;⁸ and
- (7) Demeaned Muslims and Islam as a religion repeatedly.⁹

¹⁰ To be sure, these pronouncements only scratch the surface of Disciplinary Counsel’s extreme prejudice toward minorities and other troubling commentary. For instance, he has also expressed disturbing views on “blacks,” “illegals” and their children, and the “slave” mentality of minorities; he embraces far-right conspiracy theories regarding, for instance, Hillary Clinton’s supposed murder of a Democratic operative; and he has made countless statements evidencing extreme prejudice against “liberals,” “Democrats,” and

Notably, the above statements are merely examples of what Disciplinary Counsel has not hesitated to say publicly. Accordingly, one shudders to think what he says about Muslims and other minorities privately. Further, given the highly public nature and the extraordinary volume of Mr. Morgan’s anti-Muslim and other sentiments, it seems implausible that his coworkers at the Board of Professional Responsibility are not and have not long been aware of Mr. Morgan’s extreme prejudice.¹¹

III. Argument

Disciplinary Counsel is an ethics prosecutor. Bigotry by a prosecutor, of course, is “inappropriate and prejudicial,” State v. Jones, No. 01C01-9512-CC-00402, 1997 WL 359224, at *7 (Tenn. Crim. App. June 30, 1997), and it constitutes “improper conduct.” State v. Ostine, No. M2013-00467-CCA-R3-CD, 2015 WL 7009058, at *18 (Tenn. Crim. App. Nov. 12, 2015). The Constitution also forbids prosecutions that are influenced by bigotry. See, e.g., United States v. Gist, 382 F. App’x 181, 183 (3d Cir. 2010) (“Although prosecutors enjoy wide discretion, they may not prosecute based on a defendant’s ‘race, religion, or other arbitrary classification.’”) (quoting United States v. Armstrong, 517 U.S. 456, 464 (1996) (citations and quotation marks omitted)). The Petitioner—and the public—accordingly have a right to a judicial proceeding that is free of any concerns that it is tainted by Disciplinary Counsel’s abhorrent anti-Muslim animus. See, e.g., Tenn.

attorneys who support the Democratic Party in particular, see Collective Exhibit B, which includes both Mr. Manookian and the undersigned. The fact that the Petitioner is currently being prosecuted by the BPR for—among other things—calling a Donald Trump supporter a racist only compounds the Petitioner’s concerns about prejudice and viewpoint-based prosecution from Disciplinary Counsel.

¹¹ Of note, Disciplinary Counsel has also disparaged courts, judicial proceedings, and other public-figure lawyers in ways that are—at minimum—on par with the out-of-court statements for which Disciplinary Counsel is actively prosecuting the petitioner. See, e.g., Collective Exhibit B. The fact that Disciplinary Counsel not only has not been treated the same way as the Petitioner for these comments, but is actively participating in the Petitioner’s prosecution also gives rise to enormous concerns about selective prosecution and viewpoint-based speech policing regarding which the Petitioner has a right to discovery, and Mr. Morgan and the BPR plainly cannot be both prosecutors and critical witnesses in the Petitioner’s case.

Sup. Ct. Rule 8.4(d) (prohibiting “conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice”).

As such, pursuant to the judicial branch’s “special obligation to ensure proper application of our rules and administration of the legal profession,” Clinard v. Blackwood, 46 S.W.3d 177, 182 (Tenn. 2001), this Court should exercise its discretion to disqualify Disciplinary Counsel from this proceeding going forward. See id. (“A trial court’s ruling on attorney disqualification, or the vicarious disqualification of that attorney’s firm, will be reversed only upon a showing of an abuse of discretion.”). Tenn. Sup. Ct. Rule 9, § 16 provides generally for the appointment of “Special Disciplinary Counsel” in cases of misconduct by Disciplinary Counsel. See Tenn. Sup. Ct. Rule 9, § 16.3(a). See also generally Tenn. Sup. Ct. Rule 9, § 16. Application of that rule is appropriate here. Allowing an extreme anti-Muslim bigot—whom Tennessee’s Board of Professional Responsibility has inexplicably employed and permitted to maintain prosecutions on our Supreme Court’s behalf—to undertake a prosecution against an attorney who has a Muslim family shakes confidence in the integrity of this entire proceeding. Accordingly, this Court should order the appointment of Special Disciplinary Counsel to handle the balance of this case going forward.

IV. Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, this Court should disqualify Disciplinary Counsel from future involvement in this case and order the appointment of Special Disciplinary Counsel to handle the balance of this proceeding.

I'm so tired of this being labeled "sloppiness". That implies a simple mistake or just carelessness. This was neither. It was part of an intentional coup! We are not gonna stand by and watch this...

● Ronna McDaniel @GOPChairwoman · Dec 16, 2019

James Comey was the head of the FBI. The buck stops with him.

Claiming it was "sloppiness" on behalf of the FBI to obtain a FISA warrant is a bogus excuse.

Comey owes both @realDonaldTrump and Carter Page an apology.

Biden is an absolute jerk. Turns a legitimate question into a fat joke. He said he "knows more than most people", which is why he's running. He's an arrogant thief.

You won't do any of those things, because you won't be President. Listening to you complain about the economy the other night was a joke. More people are working than ever before. Unemployment amongst blacks is the lowest ever recorded. Get a grip!

When I think about what our country needs, I promise you I will be a President who leads with a sense of dignity, with honesty, speaking the truth, and giving American families all that they need to get through the end of the month in a way that allows them to prosper.

I think you're right. While she's never accomplished much of anything, they'd be getting 4 more years of BHO in the White House. And having her as the candidate would virtually guarantee 90% of the black vote, despite all that @realDonaldTrump has done for them.

● Gracie51 @Gracie5111 · Apr 30, 2019

Michelle Obama is the Democrats secret weapon. Just watch. That's why the DNC doesn't care how many candidates. They will be kicked to the curb anyway.

This witch hunt is never going to end. When the Mueller report finally comes out, if ever, the narrative will be that @realDonaldTrump couldn't prove his innocence, so there must have been collusion. Where are Hillary's 33,000 emails? cnn.com/2019/03/19/pol...

but his policies did NOTHING for them. Wouldn't you rather have a President who actually HELPS them?
Record low unemployment among blacks! That's what a

Ford and her leftist attorneys are just buying time so they can continue a media bidding war. They'll say the Repubs have been unfair, and go tell her "story" to the highest bidder. Not under oath, and without Kavanaugh response. VOTE NOW! cnn.com/2018/09/21/politics/kavanaugh-ford-testimony-response/

Seriously? The entire charade is ridiculous. Her demands are equally nonsensical. She doesn't intend to testify at all. I suspect you guys are just buying more time so your bidding war with the media heats up. She'll go tell her story to the highest bidder. VOTE NOW!

and stated she would continue to "resist" @realDonaldTrump. And just last month she's profiled by Univ. of Wisconsin law school as part of resistance.
But I'm sure now she just wants the truth.

Yet another exhibit supporting @realDonaldTrump labeling @CNN fake news. @POTUS did NOT state he could "defy" Constitution! He never said that! He believes 14th Amend. being misused to allow illegals to have babies here and be citizens!

More illegals to divide America's wealth. That's his I'm telling you, the Dems are unhinged, and their politicians are leading the charge. When @RepMaxineWaters calls for her supporters to violence, what did they expect would happen? They are at war, and @BrettKavanaugh is collateral damage.

Virtually everyone who knows Brett Kavanaugh has stated these allegations do not make any sense at all. Yet Dems want him crucified. Virtually everyone who knew Bill Clinton had to admit that the vast amount of sexual assault allegations were likely true, but "private". What???
